$\text{♩} = 136$ rit. All synths are identical patches in Vital Synth. I know the delay time is wrong but don't know what it should be.

Mostly guessing the exact notes in the chords here

Don't really like how it sounds (there should be a lot more variance in the hi-hat velocity) but it'll do

I had to add a whole other instrument just for the cowbell... and then modify the soundfont because it was really flat.

No easy way to make that tremolo sound less horrible...

Technically the bass is supposed to be an octave lower than this (until the end) but then it's practically inaudible.
